Numb. 334.

THE Pennſylvania GAZETTE.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From April 24. to May 1. 1735.

From the London Magazine Nov. 1734.

The following ſhort Letter is inſerted to oblige one of our Country Readers in particular; and we hope it can offend none.

A Country Farmer to his Friend.

Dear Sir,

IT is very ſad and deplorable to hear and ſee how much Chriſtianity is ſunk in this Nation. One great Cauſe (in my Opinion) ſeemeth to be, the Generality of Men being of your Mind, that Chriſt Jeſus came into the World to ſave Sinners; which is true indeed; ---but not ſuch as live as they liſt, and commit Sin; ---but ſuch only as confeſs and forſake it. Beſides, there are ſundry good Qualifications required of us, to fit us for the Kingdom of Heaven; which you will find, if you read the Reverend Dr. Scott's Chriſtian Life, Part I. over and over again, as he adviſes. For, he very juſtly obſerves, in the Preface to that moſt excellent Book, That he knows nothing in the World that can be more effectual to engage Men to be ſubſtantially religious; ---to take them off from Hypocriſy and Formality; --- from all preſumptuous Hopes, and falſe Dependances, than their being thoroughly convinc'd of this Truth, That the eternal Happineſs or Miſery of Souls, is founded on their Virtue or Vice, &c. I preſs not to you the reading the Holy Scriptures; becauſe I hope that you conſtantly and reverently do; I aſſure you that you have my beſt Wiſhes, and that I am, Sir Your very affectionate,

Petersburgh, Jan. 4. The Perſian Embaſſador has frequent Conferences with our Miniſters, and Meaſures are taking to terminate the Affairs of his Negotiation, that he may be ready to ſet out for his Court, either by the latter End of this Month, or the Beginning of the next. We have receiv'd Advice from Perſia, that the Turkiſh General had found Means to throw a Reinforcement of 4000 Men into Babylon, with a great Quantity of Ammunition and Proviſions; that a Detachment of 15,000 Men, which he order'd to file off towards Georgia, had been repuls'd with great Loſs by the Perſians; that another Detachment of 10,000, which were to ſupport them, ſeeing the Misfortune of the former, were return'd to the Ottoman Camp; that Thamas Kouli-Kan continued his Conqueſts not only in Georgia, but alſo in the Upper Armenia; that he had already ſubdued four Provinces; and that he had alſo defeated ſome Turkiſh Troops which endeavour'd to oppoſe his Progreſs. We have alſo Advice from the Porte, from M. Nepluef, her Majeſty's Miniſter there, that the Grand Signor continues reſolved religiouſly to obſerve the Treaties concluded with the Chriſtian Powers; that the Grand Vizir alſo continues his Careſſes to M. Nepluef, and M. Dahlman, the Emperor's Miniſter; and that M. Nepluef having demanded a Paſs for an Expreſs he was ſending away, it was immediately granted, and Orders along with it that his Courier ſhould be eſcorted by a Tartar from one Place to another until his Arrival on the Frontiers. We talk here of a great Reformation of Religion, and Circular Letters are already iſſued for aſſembling all the Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Archmandrites, and other principal Eccleſiaſticks of this vaſt Empire, at Moſcow, in the Month of March next, in which Aſſembly ſeveral Abuſes will be ſuppreſs'd.

Naples, Jan. 4. His Catholick Majeſty being unwilling that the King his Son's Expedition to Sicily ſhould be any Charge to the Neapolitans, has ſent him Bills of Exchange for 1,200,000 Piſtoles. The Body of Spaniards order'd for Lombardy is ſtill in this Kingdom.

Rome, Jan. 8. We hear with Surprize that Prince Bartholomew Corſini, the Pope's Nephew, who had been named to command in the Kingdom of Naples during the Abſence of Don Carlos, had ſince receiv'd Orders to attend that Prince into Sicily, and that the Count de Charni was nam'd in his ſtead. It is believ'd here that the Court of Naples has only made this Change, to relieve the Prince from the Neceſſity which his Poſt would have laid him under, of ſending back his Holineſs's Briefs unopen'd, ſince the Neapolitan Court refuſes to accept them, under Pretence that the Pope has not yet acknowledg'd Don Carlos as King of Naples and Sicily. But we have ſomething here which diſturbs us much more; the Generals of the Allies have demanded of our Court to be furniſh'd with the ſame Quantity of Forage that the Imperialiſts receive from the Ferrareze, and at the ſame Price: The Pope and the Cardinals are extremely uneaſy at this Demand; and it is no Wonder that his Holineſs continues very ill of the Gout.

Leghorn, Jan. 8. On Saturday laſt a Spaniſh Man of War, was ſent away to eſcort two Veſſels, having on board the reſt of the Germans made Priſoners in the Kingdom of Naples. The Maſter of an Engliſh Veſſel, coming from Tunis, reports, that they received there the unwelcome News, that five Galliots, belonging to the Corſairs of that City, who went a cruſing in the Seas of Sicily, had all periſhed upon the Coaſt of that Kingdom.

Genoa, Jan. 8. This Week, entered this Port, ſixteen Engliſh Veſſels, moſt of them laden with Grain; and we learn from the Coaſts of Provence, that they are preparing, there there a Convoy of 70 Tranſports laden with all Sorts of Proviſions for the French Troops in Lombardy. They write from Nice, that 2000 Men of the Spaniſh Cavalry, were arrived in the Neighbourhood of that City, continuing their Rout towards the Parmeſan.

Naples, Jan. 8. The 20th we celebrated his Majeſty's Birth Day, who then entered into the 20th Year of his Age. The Count de Charni received, on that Occaſion, the Compliments of the Nobility, and in the Evening a treble Diſcharge of the Artillery was made from all the Fortreſſes. This Morning the Duke of Berwick ſet out for Saleino, thence to embark for Sicily, from whence it is written, that the Convoy which ſailed laſt from Bava, with ten Battalions, were happily arrived at Melazzo; and that the Garriſon of Syracuſa was reduc'd to the laſt Extremity for want of Proviſions; and, according to ſome Advices, that City had demanded to capitulate.

Dantzick, Jan. 10. The Advices we receive from divers Parts of the Kingdom, are unanimous, that Proviſions are extremely dear, and that the Famine begins already to break forth in ſeveral Places; and 'tis much feared that if the Oppoſite Parties ſhould continue to ravage each others Lands, the ſame will be followed by the Peſtilence, occaſioned by the bad Nouriſhment the poor People are forced to make uſe of.

Rome, Jan. 15. The Princeſs Sobieski, Conſort to the Chevalier de St. George, being dangerouſly ill, the Pope ſent laſt Tueſday Cardinal Quadigni his Nephew, to give her the Benediction in Articulo Mortis, in the Name of his Holineſs. The next Day, that Princeſs received all the Sacraments; ſometime after which ſhe departed this Life.

Vienna, Jan. 15. We are aſſur'd, that in the great Council of State which his Majeſty held ſince the Arrival of Count Konigſegg, it has been been reſolv'd to carry on the War in Italy with all poſſible Vigour, and to augment the Imperial Army there to 80,000 Men. The Count is not to go to the Hague, as formerly reported, but to ſet out immediately for Munich, to offer the Elector of Bavaria whatever may be capable of perſuading him into the Intereſt of his Imperial Majeſty. The Sieur Keſter, Cabinet Courier, is come back from Portugal with Diſpatches which ſeem extremely ſatisfactory to his Imperial Majeſty; and another Courier is arriv'd from Sileſia, with Advice that 10,000 Muſcovites are arriv'd on the Frontiers of that Dutchy: Thoſe Troops are to march as ſoon as poſſible to join the Army in Lombardy.

Berlin, Jan. 22. The King arriv'd here Yeſterday from Potſdam, and this Day his Majeſty appear'd on Horſeback at the Eſplanade; his Health encreaſes daily. We have here the following Copy of a Letter from the moſt Chriſtian King to King Staniſlaus, dated laſt October.

Sir, my Brother and Father-in-Law,

'I Have receiv'd with Abundance of Pleaſure thoſe new 'Marks of your Confidence in me, which are con-'tain'd in your Letter of September laſt. I can anſwer 'them no better than by repeating my Aſſurances, that I 'ſpare nothing for ſupporting your Intereſts, and thoſe 'of your Crown. I am not yet able to let you know 'the Succeſs of my Endeavours for you in different 'Places: But in Proportion as it becomes poſſible for me 'to do ſo, the Abbe L'Anglois ſhall give you an Account 'of them. I deſire you then not to diſquiet yourſelf, but 'to continue, on your Side, thoſe Meaſures which you 'have begun for the Encouragement of your faithful 'Subjects; to which I ſhall always moſt chearfully contri-'bute. Pray don't have the leaſt Doubt of that moſt ſin-'cere Tenderneſs with which I am,

Sir, my Brother and Father-in-Law,

Your good Brother and Son-in-Law,

LOUIS.

Hague, Jan. 28. 'The Affair of M. Royer, who 'pray'd publickly for the Prince of Orange on New-Year's 'Day, has been brought before the States: He endea-'vour'd to excuſe himſelf on Account of the Solemnity of 'the Occaſion, and the Preſence of that illuſtrious Prince '(who is the very Idol of the People;) but thoſe Reaſons 'have not hinder'd him from being ſuſpended for a cer-'tain Time from the Exerciſe of his Function. The 'Proceedings in this Matter have touch'd the Prince very 'ſenſibly.

Rome, Jan. 29. The Preparations making for the Interment of the Princeſs Sobieski, Conſort to the Chevalier de St. George, being finiſhed, the Body of that Princeſs was laſt Sunday expoſed to publick View, in the Church of the Holy Apoſtles, in the Habit of a Religious of St. Dominick, having a Crown upon her Head, and attired with a Mantle, &c. After the Obſequies were perform'd in that Church by the Sacred College, the Body was conveyed to the Baſilick of the Vatican, where it was interred with much funeral Pomp and Magnificence. The next Day the Chevalier de St. George, accompanied by his eldeſt Son, had an Audience of the Pope, in which he returned Thanks to his Holineſs, for the Honours done by his Order, to the Body of the Princeſs deceaſed.

Paris, Feb. 12. The Pope has cauſed all the publick Shows, Diverſions, &c. to be ſuſpended, on Account of the Death of the Princeſs Sobieski, and ordered that the ſame Honours be paid to that defunct Princeſs, which were rendered to the late Chriſtiana of Sweden after her Deceaſe. His Holineſs has moreover preſented the Chevalier de St. George, her Husband, with a Bill of 4000 Crowns, to enable him to put his Houſhold in Mourning. They write from Florence of the 21ſt paſt, that the Count Laurenci, charged with the Affairs of the Crown of France, died there lately; that the Vanguard of the Spaniſh Army was arrived at Arezzo, upon the Frontiers of Tuſcany, in two Columns, one of which was to march to Sienna, and the other directly to Piſa, the general Rendezvous of all the Spaniſh Troops, where alſo thoſe coming from Barcelona are expected, that the Army being there is to be divided into two Columns, one to proceed to Parma, and the other to Bologna. 'Tis adviſed from Barcelona, of the 13th of laſt Month, that all the Troops deſigned for Lombardy, had been Shipped on board, with the neceſſary Proviſions and Ammunition; and that the Fleet waited only for a fair Wind to put to Sea. Eight Thouſand Sacks of Corn, that the King cauſed to be brought, and were detained by contrary Winds, are ſhipping off at Dieppe, Havre-de-Grace, Calais and Dunkirk, in order to be tranſported into Lombardy.

Paris, Feb. 16. 'Tis adviſed from Barcelona of the 28th paſt, that a Convoy, having on board Six Battalions of Spaniſh Foot, conſiſting of 4230 Men, was ſailed thence with a fair Wind for Leghorn. The five Regiments of Horſe, which in their Paſſage through France had ſtopped in Provence, on account of the bad Weather, have again continued their March for Lombardy. We learn from Marſeilles, of the 6th Inſtant, that the Flora, one of the King's Frigates, having met in the Adriatick Sea, a Dutch Veſſel, carrying Imperial Colours, of 44 Guns, that ſcoured the Seas ſince laſt Spring, had attacked and taken the ſame, after a ſtout Reſiſtance of 4 Hours. The Queen's Pregnancy is no longer doubted, tho' the ſame has not been yet made publick.

From Milan: The Malecontents of Corſica having convicted one of their Chiefs of keeping a clandeſtine Correſpondence, and betraying their Secrets to the Republick of Genoa, they impaled him alive.

The Advices from Poland are very uncertain, ſome ſaying that the Affairs of King Auguſtus are in a very favourable Way; and others that they are in a very low and unpromiſing State.

Our Advices from Warſaw import, that the Magiſtrates and Proteſtants of Thorn have obtained the Confirmation of their Privileges, by the good Offices of the Emperor and Czarina.

By ſome private Advices from Holland we hear, that their High-Mightineſſes were ſtill reſolv'd to obſerve an exact Neutrality in the preſent Poſture of Affairs.

They write from Dantzick of the 14th, that great Endeavours are uſed to bring the Cardinal Primate to acknowledge King Auguſtus; but that the old Prelate is inflexible againſt either Promiſes or Threats.

Letters from the Hague, Jan. 25, N. S. ſay, the Damages cauſed by the late Storm on Wedneſday laſt are very great in thoſe Provinces: 'Tis reckon'd that Amſterdam will ſuffer the Loſs of two Millions of Florins by the Ships alone, which were caſt away in the Texel: That the Princeſs Royal continues in perfect Health.

From

From Vienna: It is now reſolv'd to puſh on the War in Lombardy with the utmoſt Vigour; and the 80,000 Men we propoſe to have there next Campaign, are to conſiſt of 60,000 Foot, 5000 Horſe, and 15,000 Dragoons and Huſſars.

There was an Account this Month of the Death of Princeſs Mary Clementia Sobieski, Wife to the Pretender, and ſhe had left 2 Sons, Charles-Edward, born Dec. 31. 1720; and Henry-Benedict, Edward-Alfred-Lewis-Thomas, born Feb. 24, 1725.

Dublin, Jan. 25. The Town was laſt Night alarm'd with an Account of an inhuman Murder committed on the Bodies of one Aſh, his Wife, and ſeveral of their Children, at or near Ravenſdale in the County of Kildare; by Patrick M'Doughlin and others, whoſe Names are not yet known: 'Tis acknowledg'd the ſaid Aſh was a very inoffenſive Man, and a good Neighbour, but the Villains, envying his Happineſs, in that God bleſs'd his Endeavours, and he ſeem'd to be in a thriving Condition, therefore conſpir'd the Overthrow of the whole Family.

London, Jan. 18. Several of our Merchants are in Pain for a great many of their Ships, which drove from their Anchors in the Downs and other Ports of this Kingdom, and are ſtill miſſing and fear'd to be loſt; many Wrecks and dead Bodies have been lately ſeen on the Coaſts, inſomuch that the Inſurance runs vaſtly high upon them. They alſo are very uneaſy at the Ships loſt in the Texel, and wait with great Impatience for further Accounts, no Particulars being yet come of what Engliſh Ships were ſtranded there.

Extract of a Letter from Dunkirk, Jan. 15.

'I acquainted you of a Ship caſt away at Graveling, 'with the French Troops on board, of which we have 'but a melancholy Account. This Ship came out from 'Cronſtadt the Beginning of November, in Company of 'four others, two of which were caſt away at Lawenbourg, 'and the Men travell'd by Land to Copenhagen, and 'there were provided with other Ships by the French 'Embaſſador; and two were ſtopp'd by the Ice at Elſi'neur, but afterwards proceeded on their Voyage, and the 'reſt have been no where ſince heard of, ſo 'tis appre'hended they may be all loſt: In this Ship a hundred 'and odd were embark'd, but ſome died at Sea, and three 'were drown'd at Graveling, getting aſhore, ſo that ſix'ty-three only were ſav'd, which were all remaining of 'eleven Companies; the Remainder being either kill'd, 'died natural Deaths, or for Want, or laſtly, drown'd, 'we fear few of the three Battalions will be left at laſt.

Jan. 23. The late Storms, which have done ſo much Miſchief in other Parts, have prov'd very much to the Advantage of the Town of Wisbech in the Iſle of Ely; the Banks thereabouts having all ſtood firm, the River is deepen'd to above 15 Foot Water, ſo that Ships come up to the Town, which will ſave the Charge of Lighterage, and be of great Benefit to the Trade and Merchandize of that Port.

We hear from Mantua of the 12th, that General Wallis is meditating ſome new Enterprize againſt the Allies, notwithſtanding that the Sickneſs carries off twenty or thirty Men a Day; perhaps he is emulous of the Glory of Count Konigſegg; that he is taking all the neceſſary Meaſures for the Security of the Banks of the Oglio and Part of Po; and that he is drawing a Line all the Extent of the Country facing the Cremoneſe, which will entirely cover the Mantuan on that Side: Theſe Letters add, that the Imperialiſts make frequent Incurſions, even to Parma, from whence they have brought off a conſiderable Quantity of Cattle; and are ſo well poſted along the Po, that their Proviſions and Forage come from the Ferrareſe with all imaginable Eaſe and Security.

They write from Conſtantinople, That a ſtrong Conſpiracy to dethrone the Grand Signior had been lately found out there; and that 80 of the Chief Ringleaders had been ſeiz'd and loſt their Heads, and by diſtributing 600 Purſes among the reſt, the Faction was appeaſed.

London, Feb. 1. The 25th of laſt Month, Dr. Lambert, Maſter of St. John's College Cambridge, was found dead in his Bed, being in Health when he went into it.

The ſame Day the Rev. Mr. Bradſhaw, after performing divine Service at Hampſtead Chappel, returning home, dropt down dead.

On the 28th Nathaniel Micklethait, Eſq; at Croydon died ſuddenly as he was waſhing his Hands.

Feb. 27. We hear that the Number of Land Forces for the Year 1735 is 25,744 Men.

At the Court at St. James's the 12*th Day of* Feb. 1734.

PRESENT.

The KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

This Day the Right Honourable William Earl of Eſſex, James Earl Waldegrave, and Stephen Poyntz, Eſq; were, by His Majeſty's Command, ſworn of His Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy-Council, and took their Places at the Board accordingly.

Both Houſes of Convocation met at the Chapter-Houſe in St. Paul's Church-yard, and proceeded to St. Paul's Cathedral, where they heard a Latin Sermon preach'd by the Rev. Dr. Lyſle, Chaplain to his Grace the Lord Arch-Biſhop of Canterbury; after which they return'd to the Convocation-Houſe and choſe the Rev. Dr. Waterland for their Prolocutor, and then adjourn'd to Weſtminſter.

Sunday 26. The Court went into Mourning for the Death of the Queen of Sardinia.

Admiralty-Office, Jan. 7. 1734.

The Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty being informed, that notwithſtanding His Majeſty's Pleaſure, ſignified to his Conſuls reſiding in Foreign Parts, ſeveral Maſters of Ships and Veſſels belonging to His Majeſty's Subjects which have come into the Ports where they the ſaid Conſuls reſide, have upon their Demand, refuſed to produce to them the Paſſes which they have received, in order to their endorſing the ſame in the Manner they are required to do: Their Lordſhips do therefore hereby give Notice, that it is expected all ſuch Maſters of Ships or Veſſels coming into any Port, where there is any ſuch Conſul, do at their Peril, ſtrictly comply with his Majeſty's Pleaſure, by producing to them the Paſſes in their Poſſeſſion; and that when any Ship or Veſſel belonging to his Majeſty's Subjects ſhall be ſold at any Port abroad, where a Britiſh Miniſter or Conſul doth reſide, their Maſters do deliver to ſuch Miniſter or Conſul their Paſs; or if no ſuch Miniſter or Conſul, tranſmit them as ſoon as poſſible they can to this Office, in order to their being cancelled, ſo that they may not, to the Prejudice of the Trade of His Majeſty's Subjects, fall into the Hands of Foreigners, otherwiſe their Bonds will be put in Suit with the utmoſt Severity of the Law. And their Lordſhips do hereby give Notice to all Maſters of Ships or Veſſels belonging to His Majeſty's Subjects who may receive Paſſes, either from this Office, or from any of the Governors of His Majeſty's Foreign Iſlands or Plantations, that by an Act paſſed in the Fourth Year of his preſent Majeſty, it is made Felony, without Benefit of the Clergy, if any Eraſement or Alteration whatſoever ſhall be found made in any ſuch Paſſes. By Command of their Lordſhips.
